

English

Approximately one fifth of the island Wolin is put under nature conservation. Since the year 1960, there is a big one, more than 10 000 hectares big national-park, that Wolinski park Narodowe.

An attraction of many, the bison-park is within the national-park. The urigen game-cows are here since the year 1976 at home and views the two-legged visitors of the park curiously. The enclosures in the park also groups of boars and deer show.

Wish you much success at the quest

Achim and Tina